

sticking to the morning heart (I know)

Just look you lay sticking in rain.

Always some yesterday-haired people minute minutes versus people people Perhaps terribly stuck in new.

Perhaps terribly stuck in vacation

Perhaps terribly stuck in this diner

Talk to the anger the gift

Then all day studying my most favorite okra

I will make you sourdough.

I will make you Later

(watch)

eat money.

the carnivorous way my dead eat batteries my dead are lonely, watch

MARCH 27

batteries needing replacing.

how (if?) one becomes a Corpse, on purpose there would be _in the Person that you love a pit of gravity.

someone with intensity

into my phone,

someone with intensity

And mustards

and sharp

and MARCH 27

is there?

maybe it's you it is and why there () now

Assembled around the candles and the incense and remembrance

In about every instance quiet.

if one were to pick up all the footsteps and the fingerprints he had gone causing a year:

BASEMENT ghost

here's a fever to grow with & still i am waking hot i absorb too much pinkbluered cold burn

IN MY sediment i am wanting too much i want the bed pushing between trees i want your emergency in the sky i absorb dead color i am

A false ghost

in the redred night i remember your jasmine nothing closed IN when you dip (wait) i remember once wearing poetry once blossoming shamans i read .beside you you place me

now i wonder what we've found i saw you wear red undoing the doorknob to read me read me out doors and heaven's after the reds what color i wonder what red we get life closed life up life blossomed very much now a new home now i am a old ghost but i trail behind you you gave to copulate do you HAVE cities that last
