The virus hasn't left yet, but it will,
and when it goes it will be like magic,
and all will be fine, What's really tragic is the decision with the book. We'll kill publication—my lawyers say so. Bill Barr tells me my niece can't write it. He'll fix this in the next weeks. No one's getting sick—and infections are way down. A new pill, my Trump Vaccine, will be ready real soon according to my sources. We can't wait—I've demanded a taste this afternoon.
We'll fully reopen next month. A great month, August. Hot! Less than a million dead—much less. A beautiful number of dead.

Why doesn't everyone see what I see:
the greatest leader in the history of our country. I tell you, the Chinese flu has been exactly like my mighty TV show. Lots of action. It's made me the biggest star ever because I see all the most important details. Funny how real life has been so much like TV, and here I am making the Chinese flu go away. So many tests! The most tests in the world. Nobody does what I do, and I keep outdoing myself. The best president in history, Our country is the greatest. I've become our country.

I did great on the diagnostic tests, which were hard. I pointed out elephant, and they didn't ask but I always want french fries with my hamburgers. I'm the best president ever. Absolute greatest man on earth. I love being president because I can always do what I want, which is part of the job. I'm making guests at all my hotels and clubs pay double, but soon it will be up to triple. I aced those tests. Everyone else would have trouble with those hard questions, but not me. In case you're wondering, I want a hamburger with french fries tonight. A big hamburger!

No one's taken this more seriously than me. From the beginning I stopped planes from China, home of the flu, and the main threat to health. You can ask Dr. Fauci, who by the way made mistakes. We've maybe saved a million lives so far. The best brains, most of all mine, are hard at work. We've drained the swamp at CDC. Our briefings see huge ratings—better than The Super Bowl. Sports have returned. Golf. Baseball. The bubble allows for basketball. Expect the whole economy back in time for the schools next month. I'm so proud of what I've done here. The most tests in the world—didn't you hear?

I've learned I can do briefings anywhere and announce them just before. In some ways it's much easier, though I have to stay ready for the cameras. It's unfair I can't do as many rallies. I swear Crazy Nancy and Obama must pay for what they're doing. Every single day they're killing Americans, and they dare to criticize me. Then there's their puppet, Old Sleepy Joe, sitting in his basement, doing who knows what. He hates all of it—god, religion, guns. There's no argument from him. No nothing. Just dopey basement broadcasts. I'm the best. I have no basement.

What they're doing to Postmaster DeJoy is criminal. I didn't appoint him.
I don't know him, so what's the big problem?
One more Democratic hoax! They enjoy their hearings because there's no other joy in their lives. Losers! That's what's wrong with them.
The mail still goes. They want socialism forever. Losers! They want to destroy America, and now they're taking aim on who I hear is a patriotic man doing a very fine job. It's the same post office that's failing for years. I stand for action and success. I'm a winner!
Postmasters have hard jobs. I'm a winner!

The CDC is the worst agency—for a year they've been using bad numbers to count deaths. I call them dumb and dumber, since they should just count those who are healthy who die of this. It's a great big fancy cover-up they have going. This summer I figured it out. Dishonest numbers!
I've learned six per cent is who are really dying from the Chinese flu. Six per cent!
It's not however-many-thousand dead—it's maybe ten thousand total. We went through the complete statistics. They cheated and the Deep State keeps trying to cheat. No one is dying from this. That's what I know.
